Antifriction Bearings From Italy; Notice of United States Court of International Trade Decision

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce

SUMMARY: On October 20, 1994, in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 94-167 (Torrington), the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) affirmed the Department of Commerce's (the Department) redetermination on remand of the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on antifriction bearings (other than tapered roller bearings) and parts thereof from Italy, 56 FR 31751 (July 11, 1991). The CIT had previously remanded the final results to the Department for the reconsideration of a number of issues. The CIT has now entered final judgment on all issues.

The results covered the period November 9, 1988, through April 30, 1990.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 30, 1994.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: J. David Dirstine or Richard Rimlinger, Office of Antidumping Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-4733.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 8, 1993, the CIT in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 93-125, remanded the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on antifriction bearings (other than tapered roller bearings) and parts thereof from Italy to the Department to: (1) Add the full amount of value added tax (VAT) paid on each sale in the home market to foreign market value (FMV) without adjustment; (2) treat certain of SKF Industrie, S.p.A.'s (SKF) discounts as indirect expenses unless the manner in which they were reported met the standard for treatment as direct expenses; and (3) remove discounts paid on SKF's and FAG Cuscinetti S.p.A.'s (FAG) out-of-scope merchandise or, if not possible, disallow the discounts. The Department submitted its results of redetermination on remand to the court on September 22, 1993. On December 10, 1993, in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 93-234, the CIT again remanded the case to the Department to:

(1) Apply Italy's VAT rate to the United States price (USP) calculated at the same point in the stream of commerce as Italy's VAT is applied for home market sales, and add the resulting amount to USP; and (2) choose appropriate best information available (BIA) for the adjustment to FAG's USP for U.S. discounts and treat the adjustment as a direct selling expense. The Department submitted its redetermination pursuant to this second remand order on January 10, 1994. On March 4, 1994, in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 94-37, the CIT again remanded the case for the Department (1) to implement its new VAT methodology and recalculate the VAT pursuant to the partial final judgment on the issue previously entered in the case; (2) to determine and apply BIA for the adjustment to FAG's USP for U.S. discounts; and (3) to determine whether the Department has statutory authority to adjust FMV, calculated using purchase price, for FAG's pre-sale inland freight in light of Ad Hoc Comm. of AZ-NM-TX-FL Producers of Gray Portland Cement v. United States, 13 F.3d 398 (Fed. Cir. 1994). The Department submitted its results of redetermination pursuant to this third remand order on May 17, 1994. On October 20, 1994, in Torrington, the CIT affirmed the Department's results of remand and entered final judgment on all issues.

In its decision in Timken Co. v. United States, 893 F.2d 337 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (Timken), the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit held that, pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1516a(e), the
